

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
A letter of apology	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Damage repaired	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Contribution to household/environment tasks	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Replaced items out of own funds	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Name of Young Person receiving the consequence to behaviour:		CPD Ref. Number:
When did this occur?	Date:	Time:
Where did this occur?
Who was there:
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Name		Designation
Details of behaviour leading to the use of the consequence to behaviour: (Describe any steps taken to avoid the use of the consequence to behaviour)
Consequence to behaviour: (Description of the consequence to behaviour)
Duration of consequence to behaviour:		Authorised by:

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Restorative practice process.
NB It is important to remember that a restorative practice system process is not to replace consequences but an additional process in the right circumstances.
For young people who meet the below criteria it may be considered appropriate to abandon or reduce the impact of consequences providing the responses are believed to be genuine. Source - https://www.tieonline.com/article/3539/the-relationship-between-restorative-practices-and-consequences
	Yes	No
Is there an identified victim?
Is the young person who has committed the concern responsive to discussions about what has happened?
Is the young person prepared to accept responsibility?
Has the young person explained what they were thinking at the time of the concern.
Has it been explained to the young person the impact of their behaviour on the victim and how that made them feel?
Can the child explain any benefits of self-reflection?
Details
What restorative measures have been taken?
A verbal apology
A letter of apology
Damage repaired
Contribution to household/environment tasks
Replaced items out of own funds
Details
Is an AQA unit appropriate to be completed?
If yes, AQA completed to support restorative work

Consequences to Behaviour Log

Young person's comments:
Signature of young person:		Date
Signature of Member of staff giving the consequence to behaviour:		Date
Signature of Registered Manager:		Date

*To be completed within 48 hours

Effectiveness of the consequence to behaviour (to be completed by manager) To include any details of debriefings:
Signature of Manager:		Date:

*To be completed within 5 days